History

1964 marked the birth of the International Community Corrections Association when 30 community corrections professionals held their first meeting in Chicago. Today, after nearly 45 years, the ICCA represents more than 250 private agencies operating over 1,500 residential and community alternative programs throughout the world. ICCA member agencies offer a variety of services to communities through the courts, Departments of Corrections, the Federal Bureau of Prisons, counties, states and provinces, and cities throughout the United States and Canada.

Affiliations

ICCA is an affiliate of:

- The American Correctional Association (ACA), since 1975
