

The International Community Corrections Association

With support of the National Judicial College, the International Association for Correctional and Forensic Psychology, The Center for Health and Justice at TASC INC.

Presents

Evidence-based Sentencing and Navigating the Risk Principle

May 6-8, 2012
Reno, Nevada

Sunday, May 6, 2012

- 1:00 PM-4:00 PM Registration
- 2:00 PM-5:00 PM ICCA Board Meeting

Monday, May 7, 2012

- 8:30 AM-9:00 AM Welcome to Reno
- 9:00 AM-10:00 AM Opening Session: Framing the Dilemma for Navigating Risk
- 10:15 AM-12:00 PM Noon Plenary Session I: What is Evidence-based Sentencing and Why is it the Right Thing to do?
- 12:00 PM -1:00 PM Luncheon Session: How to establish the credibility of tools and assessment
- 1:00 PM-2:15 PM Plenary Session II: Why Consider Substance Abuse and Mental Health
- 2:30 PM-3:15 PM Plenary Session III: Why treating high risk substance involved and health impaired offenders is important
- 3:30 PM-4:30 PM Afternoon Closing: What Really Counts in Assessing Needs and Risk to Reduce Recidivism

Tuesday, May 8, 2012 (Day 2)

- 8:30 AM-10:30 AM Plenary Session IV: How to Develop a Statewide Reinvestment Strategy – Experience in the States
- 10:45 AM- 12:15 PM Plenary Session V: Morning Session – The Concept of Redemption and its Impact on Reinvestment Strategies
- 12:15 PM-1:30 PM Lunch Session: Potential of Federal Sentencing Reform and Justice Reinvestment and Pretrial Reform
- 1:30 PM-3:00 PM Creating the will to make Justice Reinvestment and Second Chances Happen in the States
- 3:00 PM-4:30 PM Closing Session on Making Change Happen